

Facial Injuries

LearnSportsMed

Learning Objectives

- Anatomy, aetiology, clinical features, investigations and management of auricular haematoma
- Management of epistaxis
- Anatomy, aetiology, clinical features, investigations and management of nasal fractures
- Anatomy, aetiology, clinical features, investigations and management of septal haematoma
- Complications of septal haematoma
- Red flag signs and symptoms for urgent ophthalmology referral
- Exam, investigation and management of common eye injuries – corneal abrasion, subconjunctival haemorrhage, hyphaema, lens dislocation, retinal detachment
- Anatomy, aetiology, clinical features, investigations and management of orbital blowout fracture